TODAY: Canterville chase is finally free

NO MORE GHOST AT CANTERVILLE CHASE

Mr Otis's interview

Why your twins enjoyed frightening the ghost? They really enjoy joking with people for example at school they cut hair at girls and do footboards to their friends.

Why weren't you frightened in front of the ghost? Because he wasn't scary. He needed help and I decided to lend him some oil for his chains.

What did you think when Virginia disappeared? I was very worried. I didn't know where she was so I wanted to call the police. I'm jealous of my daughter and I don't want anything bad happens to her.

Ghost's interview

For an evening the ghost is allowed to come down from Heaven to answer our questions. How are you in paradise? I'm fine, thanks. Here no one bothers me and I'm far away from the twins and their silly jokes. I also met my old wife and , after I apologised about what I did, we reconciled.

How long have you been a ghost? I've been a ghost for about three hundred years and that was an experience as long as boring, but now I'm finally free.

How did you behave during these years? During all these years I've been able to frighten everyone so ,when the Otis family moved to the Canterville chase, I thought they were like the others, but I was wrong.

How did you feel when you realized that you weren't frightening? Well, since I'd been doing this job for hundreds years, I felt terrible when I wasn't able to frighten anyone. Not even the little twins.

BREAKING NEWS!

The Canterville chase is finally free. A couple of months have passed since Mr. Otis and his family decided to move in the Canterville chase despite the warnings of the last owner about a ghost which was hunting the house. The ghost tried many times to scare each of the family members but he never succeeded so he started feeling so depressed and sad that he didn't leave his room anymore. The only one who felt sorry for him was Virginia, Mr. Otis's daughter; she was very kind and beautiful. A few days after they moved in, Virginia met the ghost in the library and he started telling her his story. He murdered his wife in that house and her brothers starved him to death. He also told her that the only way for him to finally die, was having someone to cry for him in the Garden of Sleep (or of Death). He convinced her to follow him in this garden and he finally found peace. When she returned home she found everyone worried for her because she had been away for two days. The last thing the ghost gave her was a precious neckless as a thank you for her help.
